3200 miles

Rowing 3200 miles maintaining a shift pattern of 2 hours on and 2 hours off for 60 - 80 days will be a huge challenge.

£100,000 for charity

The aim of the crew is to raise over £100,000 to support a number of charities across the areas of Conservation, Innovation and Adventure.

2000 litres of water

The crew will have to desalinate more than 2000 litres of water to drink, rehydrate food and occasionally wash.

Join the adventure – Sponsor us!

In January 2027 four ordinary men from the Southwest of England will set off on an extraordinary journey – rowing across the Atlantic!

They are taking part in the world's longest organised rowing event – The Atlantic Dash.

Team Sea Change Atlantic will be rowing 3200 miles across open ocean, from Rubicon Marina, Lanzarote in the Canary Islands, to Jolly Harbour, Antigua.

During 60-80 days of non-stop rowing, the crew will be battling sleep deprivation, sea sickness, blisters and 30ft waves, whilst navigating wind, weather, tides and shipping. Dare we mention whales, sharks and blue marlin encounters too?

Why? Simple, to raise awareness and money for causes we believe in.

Through this endeavour, with your help, the crew is committed to raising over £100,000 for our chosen charities - Parkinson's UK, Axminster & Lyme Cancer Support and the Two Bays Trust.

“Good luck Adam, Barnaby, Maddie and Richard on your amazing challenge - The Atlantic Dash.

I only used to do 2,000 metre racing, so I take my hat off to you guys for attempting such an epic adventure and for such a great cause that affects us all. I have no doubt you will succeed. All the very best.”

Sir Steve Redgrave

Up to 30 metre waves

Previous attempts of the Atlantic crossing have encountered waves of nearly 100ft. The crew will be tethered to the boat at all times during the row.

1,000,000+ calories

The crew need to consume over 1,000,000 calories during the journey to maintain their energy levels.
Don't mention the poo bucket!

Deep water swimming

In order to clean the bottom of the boat the crew will be swimming in water up to 9 kilometres deep!

Be part of something incredible

Team Sea Change Atlantic are busy gathering a hugely enthusiastic coalition of funding partners to support their mission of rowing across the Atlantic Ocean.

Our funding partners, who will share every stroke of this wild 3,200-mile journey with the crew, will include businesses who want to show their interest in the areas of conservation, innovation and health.

Partners will be associating themselves with an inspiring narrative of triumph and endurance, of ambition and the pursuit of excellence. Our partners will be companies who know what endeavour and success looks like, and who want to be seen to be celebrating it.

We do hope that our partners will include you!

Adam Benjamin, Barnaby Kay,
David 'Maddie' Pyle, Richard Blackmore

"Rowing the Atlantic - you must be mad! Wishing Sea Change Atlantic every success in your row and in your efforts to shine a light on the damage that climate change is doing to our magnificent oceans."

Ben Fogle

No rest for the wicked

With nowhere to anchor until they arrive in Antigua the crew will row 24/7 for 60-80 days to complete the 3200 mile trip

Sponsor our playlist

To either get us through the day or torture us for an hour every day, we are looking for people to sponsor a playlist.

Scared of the dark

The crew will be rowing 1700 miles in the dark through the night as they head for Antigua.

What's in this for our sponsors?

Being involved in this global event will generate promotional opportunities and captivating content that your customers, partners and staff will buy into, month after month, up to, during and beyond the row itself.

We guarantee your target audiences will be entertained and inspired. As sponsors you will be in the boat with us throughout our journey, and the crew and media team will be on hand to advise you on how to get the most from everything.

Most importantly you will be enabling Sea Change Atlantic to transform your sponsorship into a far larger donation for our chosen charities – Parkinson's UK and Two Bays Trust.

Local, national and international media coverage

Sea Change Atlantic's journey in partnership with our charities will generate substantial media coverage, offering significant exposure through press releases, TV interviews and social media. We are aiming to engage a documentary-maker to follow our journey too.

With content that includes crew updates, behind the scenes exclusives and seminars / webinars that will inspire and engage you can expect to generate considerable interest as your staff, customers and partners fully buy in to our story!

Everest? Easy!

More people have climbed Everest than have rowed the Atlantic

Weight Loss

Each rower will lose 12kg of body weight during the row. This is affectionately known as The Atlantic Diet!

Which way?

The crew will need to navigate the 3200
miles taking into consideration tide, wind and weather conditions.

Just some of the sponsorship features

Logo exposure and product placement

As a sponsor, your logo and messaging can be featured on our boat, on our clothing, on our equipment and on promotional materials. With every stroke we take, you'll be building a connection to a powerful narrative that elevates your brand and drives meaningful engagement.

Unique access to the crew – before, during and after the event

Our crew members will make themselves available for public speaking engagements; exclusive fund-raising events; press interviews and features; and extensive social media activity encompassing live streams, features, blog posts and reels.

Access to our boat; to our crew merchandise and to unique mementos from the adventure

Why not show our boat off at your corporate events? Or give away mementos from our trip to your key customers / staff. Or run a competition to row for a day on our boat. All these benefits are available within certain sponsorship packages.

A tie-in with our chosen charities

Your sponsorship of Sea Change Atlantic would form a core component of your corporate social responsibility programme, demonstrating your commitment to groundbreaking endeavours and projects that have charity fund-raising objectives.

Our platinum sponsor will have the privilege of choosing an additional charity to receive proceeds from this challenge!

Sponsorship is not just about money

We would be pleased to accept necessary kit rather than a wholly financial sponsorship. We would also be excited to work with partners to test out new equipment whilst rowing across the Atlantic.

If you would like to suggest an entirely different sponsorship package – for example team music sponsor, team fitness training sponsor, we would be happy to engage with you.

Community sponsorship

In January 2026 we will be launching our community sponsorship crowdfunding campaign. Our crowdfunding campaign will include innovative ways of funding the crew, including opportunities to:

Beast a team member – nominate a crew member to row a double-shift

Buy a song to be included on the team's playlist

Name the first dolphin the crew sees

Remember: your sponsorship will help us raise in excess of £100,000 for our chosen charities

Our charity fund-raising will commence in earnest in early 2026.

“I’ll need a volunteer to tell my wife.
Other than that, I can’t see any barriers to us making this epic journey.”

Barnaby Kay, actor, activist and crew member.

“You’re not going.”

Nicola Walker, actress and Barnaby’s wife.
